Dated: 03.01.2019

Shri Arun Jaitley Ji
Hon'ble Finance Minister
Government of India
New Delhi

Honorable Sir,

We have been taking up with IBA and Government of India about our Pending issues including submitting Memorandum to your good self and IBA personally. However none of the issues raised by us has been resolved disappointing all Banks Retirees & Pensioners who had put in their dedicated service in their respective Banks and served the nation as well.

Since no favorable developments have taken so far All Banks Retirees Organisations have called for demonstrations and dharna in all important centers and state capitals of India. Accordingly Dharna-Cum-March to Parliament is organised in Jantar Mantar, Delhi on 7th January, 2019(07.01.2019) Monday. We have also submitted a memorandum to the Honorable Prime Minister of India which is also enclosed for your kind reference and suitable favorable action.

We shall be highly obliged if our issues are considered sympathetically. We also wish to mention that consideration of our issues will not affect the Balance Sheet of the Banks as the Pension Fund is created out of surrender of Provident Fund by employees and the corpus is as huge as Rs3,00,000/- crores. We earnestly hope for a positive consideration of our issues and render justice to the Senior and Super Senior Citizens of the Banking Industry.

With Regards,

Yours Sincerely,

K V Acharya
Joint Convener, CBPRO
