Dear Comrade,

Sub : XIth Biennial Conference of Canara Bank Retired Officers' Association held at Mangaluru on 1st & 2nd December, 2018 in a spirit of festivity and in the midst of massive Participation of the senior citizens of the Bank.

We have much pleasure to inform our members that more than 1200 nos. of delegates from different parts of the country arrived at the city of Mangaluru to share the glory and festivity of the conference of the senior citizens of Canara Bank. Important highlights of the conference are given hereunder for encouragement of each and every member of our organisation :

- On 1st December, 2018 a massive procession of delegates started from the Founders Monument and reached the venue. The citizens of the city witnessed with curiosity the colourful and disciplined procession of the retirees.
- The inaugural session was graced by Com. K.V. Acharya, President, AIBPARC, Com. G.V. Manimaran, General Secretary, CBOA, General Managers, Mangaluru and Bengaluru circle offices, Com. K.B. Ballur, President of the organisation and Working President of AIBPARC, Com. A.N. Krishnamurthy, General Secretary of Canara Bank Retired Officers' Association and a senior leader of AIBPARC and several other eminent leaders and dignitaries.
- Com. K.V. Acharya covered various issues of pensioners and the relentless campaign waged by AIBPARC & CBPRO in convincing the powers that be that great injustice was being done to the senior citizens of the industry. He narrated in detail the legality and rationality of all the demands of the retirees. He observed that the joint struggle that has been initiated throughout the country will definitely see the light of success.
- Com. Manimaran described at length the efforts of AIBOC in clinching a better pay package for the officers. He made a reference to the writ petition filed by an officer of Canara Bank at Madurai High Court Bench demanding parity with Govt. employees in line with Central Pay Commission. He lent full support to the issues of the retirees and assured that CBOA will do its best to take care of the interest of the retirees.

- General Managers of Mangaluru and Bengaluru circles spoke highly about the contributions made by the senior citizens of the bank and solicited the support of the senior citizens for bringing quality business for the bank.
- 20 members who attained the age of 75 years + were honoured by the organisation in a befitting manner.
- Com. K.B. Ballur, President of the organisation, summarised the proceedings of the day and touched upon the following points : the presence of Shri Laxmi Narayana & Shri D. Vijay Kumar, both General Managers of the Bank will give a big boost to the retirees, he praised the role of Chairman of the Reception Committee and other dedicated members who toiled hard to make the conference a success and he expressed the fervent hope that under the leadership of Com. K.V. Acharya, all the demands of the retirees will be met very soon.
- Com. T.R. Bhat, former GS of Corporation Bank Officers' Organisation observed that a long struggle was to be waged to achieve the demands of retirees.
- The delegate session started on 2nd December, 2018. Com. A.N. Krishnamurthy submitted his written report on all contemporary issues and also the issues of retirees for consideration of the house. 17 nos of delegates participated on the report of GS. Different issues came up for discussion. All the queries of the members were answered to the satisfaction of members and the report was adopted unanimously. The official resolutions on different issues were also passed by the house.
- The election process was conducted as per norms and house unanimously constituted the central committee for the future years. Com. K.B. Ballur was elected as the President and Com. A.N. Krishnamurthy was elected as General Secretary. We congratulate both the leaders and also all the members of the newly constituted committee.

We have a high hope that the holding of the XIth Biennial Conference held at Mangaluru will further strengthen the movement of retirees in the country and our affiliate in Canara Bank will move from strength to strength in days to come.

With best wishes,

(SUPRITA SARKAR)
