The Chairman,
Indian Banks' Association,
Mumbai.

Respected Sir,

Sub: Improvement of Family Pension in Banks --- a few aberrations need to be corrected.

Consequent upon implementation of improved family Pension in Banks, certain aberrations have come to our notice in regard to Family Pensioners who draw comparatively lesser amount of monthly pension. This has arisen because of not giving cognizance to Appendix III (three) in relation to Regulation 39 of BEPR, 1995.

You may kindly see that in Appendix III, at the end of each bracket of Employees, there is a concept of minimum amount of pension per month which is to be protected. If this is not adhered to, improvement virtually turns to be retrograde in nature and it has an adverse impact over a section of Retirees.

We shall consider it to be a favour if you kindly look into it and remove the cause of grievance.

With regards,

Yours faithfully,

Suprita Sarkar.
General Secretary
