The Joint Conveners,
Coordination of Bank Pensioners &
Retirees Organisation.

Dear Comrades,

As a constituent body of the CBPRO, we write to inform you that there is a growing resentment amongst members over the inordinate delay of IBA/Govt. of India in settling the retirees' issues namely – (1) Updation, (2) DA at 100% Neutralisation to those who are denied (3) Extension of family pension to the Bank retirees in line with the Govt./IBA, (4) Improvement in medical facilities etc. According to us, this delay is because, though we have formed a coordinated body, we are not united in spirit and action. We are independently pursuing some gains at respective organizational level. This approach is taken note of by the IBA/Govt. and as a result, they are delaying the process.

In the circumstances as stated above, we suggest that we, all the constituent units of CBPRO meet urgently at convenient place to discuss and introspect and to decide upon a line of action, accordingly.

Awaiting your response.

With greetings,

Yours sincerely,

(S. R. SEN GUPTA)
