Dear Comrade,

Com. L.V. Subramaniam, the doyen in the field of the Trade Union Movement of the supervisory cadre of the Banking Industry, passed away.

We have deepest anguish to convey that Com. L.V. Subramaniam (popularly known as LV) passed away on 8th April, 2023 at her daughter's place at Singapore. A smart gentleman with eloquence, courage and dedication with the support of a few competent colleagues in the Industry had raised the voice of the officers before the Bank management, IBA and Government of India to uphold the dignity of the supervisory cadre. He was the hero of many a legendary battles in State Bank of India and he was instrumental in forming an apex- level All India organization known as All India Confederation of Bank Officers organizations (AICOBOO) which played a significant role in the Industry at the time of implementation of Pillai Committee Recommendations.

We deeply mourn the death of Com L.V. Subramaniam and convey our bereavement to the members of his family.

Long Live Com. L.V.

Suprita Sarkar
