AIBPARC/PMO/EMAIL/2019

31ST MAY, 2019.

Shri Narendra Modi Ji,
Hon'ble Prime Minister,
Govt. of India,
Prime Ministers Office,
South Block,
New Delhi.

Respected Sir,

Kindly permit us to encroach upon your valuable time so that the senior citizens of the Banking Industry can convey their congratulatory feelings and emotions to the Hon'ble Prime Minister of the country :

We, the elder citizens of the Banking Industry under the banner of All India Bank Pensioners & Retirees Confederation (AIBPARC) convey our sincerest regards, congratulations and best wishes to you on your becoming the Prime Minister of the largest democracy of the world for the 2nd consecutive terms. We have seen with wonder that the entire country in one voice has reposed their confidence upon your party as an organisation and more particularly on yourself as the undisputable leader of the organisation. The support-base that you are enjoying at the present moment cuts across the barriers of colour, creed and religion. We do hope that a new era will be ushering in during the period of the 2nd term of the government.

We just like to tell a few words about ourselves. Our organisation represents the consolidation of Bank Pensioners and Retirees of Nationalised Banks, private sector banks and a few RRBs and the total membership-strength of the organisation is more than 1 lakh. We have offered sincere, dedicated and diligent services to the building of the nation and the society for a period of 3 to 4 decades. Even after superannuation from the services of the bank, our soul still remains with the organisation we served. You will be surely remembering that at the time of demonetisation when the entire serving employees and officers were reeling under the severe pressure of work, it is we, the elder citizens of the Banking industry came forward voluntarily to extend our hands of helpful cooperation to our serving brethren and we did it without the hope of getting any \financial compensation.

Respected sir, all the segments of the society are eagerly looking forward to the success of your government and the display of your effective leadership in all spheres of life. Ourselves, being the integral part of the society itself, are no exception. We will hope that through an overall development of the society and the nation, the image of our country will be further brightened and we shall be reaching new heights of success before the entire world.

With kind regards,

Yours faithfully ,

(SUPRITA SARKAR)
