We have lost a Great Saint like Prime Minister, Very highly respected Shri Manmohan SinghJi. History will remember him for his innovative schemes to help the Middle class and Poorer Sections of Society while pursuing his own liberalized economic policies popularly known as Manmohanomics. Known as a Silent PM but yet who made louder Pronouncements be it Economic Policy or Nuclear Policy. In Politics he was Ajatha Shathru, a man who had no enemies and won over his opponents. A Rare Political Giant of utmost Honesty and Humility. Pray Almighty God to Bless his Exceptionally Noble Soul to Rest in His Lotus Feet.

Om Shanti Om

With Profound Grief, Acharya.

Apart from the above instant glowing Tributes we wish to further offer our homage to the memory of one of the Greatest Prime Ministers of our Nation. Inducted into the Cabinet by the then Prime Minister Shri P V Narasimha RaoJi in 1991 to salvage India from the ongoing economic crisis, Shri Manmohan SinghJi steered the nation out of the crisis. We may rightly describe his induction into the Cabinet as a surprising development. But then the Manmohan Singh Era is punctuated with remarkably bold steps on economic front, nuclear policy, giving identity to every individual citizen through Aadhar Card, arming the Common Man with RTI and to bring transparency in Governance,

ALL INDIA BANK PENSIONERS & RETIREES CONFEDERATION (A.I.B.P.A.R.C.)

RTE, a revolutionary step for Education to every child, giving succour specially to the Rural poor by launching NREG Scheme etc . His leadership saved India from the Global Economic crisis and his Government rightly credited and acknowledged the role of Banking Sector, Specially the very proactive role of Public Sector Banks for this sterling achievement.

In his own words of Shri Manmohan SinghJi said “A Finance Minister has to be Hard Headed. But I promise that in dealing with the people of India I shall be Soft Headed. I shall never forget that ultimately all economic processes are meant to serve the interest of our People.” No doubt he tried his best to reflect and translate the same in his actions and policies as Finance Minister and Prime Minister.

We dip our banner with utmost Solemnity and Respect in Honor of Shri Manmohan SinghJi and pray for Peace to His Noble Soul.

K.V. Acharya.
