Shri Atul Kumar Goel,
The Chief Executive,
Indian Banks' Association,
Mumbai.

Respected Sir,

We congratulate you profusely on your becoming the Chief Executive of the prestigious IBA. We wish you all success in the new assignment.

We are specially happy that since yourself was Chairman of IBA earlier and CEO and MD of Punjab National Bank, a Premier, Largest Bank, and as Leader of the Indian Banking Industry are well acquainted with the challenges of the Industry and with your vast experience you will lead the Institution of IBA from the front.

We fondly remember our meeting with your Goodself in your PNB Office when you were the Chairman of IBA regarding the Issues of Bank Pensioners and Retirees and felt happy for the Sympathy and Understanding shown by Your Goodself regarding the long pending grievances of Bank Pensioners and Retirees, specially extension of Uniform DA Compensation to Pre November 2002 Retirees. Your solemn assurance on the issue helped in settling the issue of DA for Pre-November 2002 Retirees. We are hopeful and confident that Your GoodSelf now as Chief Executive of IBA, the other pending issues, mainly Updation of Pension will find satisfactory resolution. We also expect a very dynamic approach by IBA on various matters concerning the Banking Industry.

ALL INDIA BANK PENSIONERS & RETIREES CONFEDERATION (A.I.B.P.A.R.C.)

This is our fervent hope that during your tenure and under your stewardship as the Chief Executive of the organisation, IBA would become more sympathetic and sensitive to the issues with which the Bank Pensioners and Retirees are confronted with.

With Best wishes and Kind Regards,

Yours faithfully,

K.V. Acharya.
