COM. GURUDAS DASGUPTA PASSES AWAY

Com. Gurudas Dasgupta, veteran communist leader and a former member of the parliament passed away on 31st October, 2019. He was renowned for his excellent skill in oratory, his courageous fight against privatization, retrenchment in the private sector and detrimental changes proposed in the labour laws of the country. As a member of both the houses of parliament, he has always raised his voice as a champion and a true leader of the working class of the country. As the general secretary of AITUC, he has moved throughout the country like a whirlwind and walked many a miles with his comrades to protest against the exploitation of Indian labour.

We, the bankmen, shall definitely remember Com Dasgupta who at many crisis-hours and cross roads of the movement of bank employees and officers has come forward in a proactive manner to break the ice. We have lost a leader of his stature at a time when we needed him most.

We join the entire working class of the country to say loudly “Com. Dasgupta Amar Rahe” and “Long live the champion of Indian working class.”

(SUPRITA SARKAR)
GENERAL SECRETARY
